

PRESSURE VESSEL

Gas Gathering Separator

Gas Gathering Separator is equipment used for oil and gas collection, separation, and treatment. In the natural gas gathering and transportation systems of gas fields and underground gas storage facilities, it provides effective separation of gas and liquid phases and associated impurities, making it an indispensable component of the gathering system. Typical internal configuration includes a gas liquid separation chamber, a liquid collection boot, and high efficiency separation elements, etc..

