

OIL AND GAS FIELD SURFACE PROCESSING EQUIPMENT

Underground Gas Storage Injection and Production Unit

After natural gas is processed, compressed and metered, it is injected into the underground gas storage facility. During gas production, the extracted gas is subsequently heated, choked, dehydrated, filtered, and metered before being delivered into the pipeline system.

